Human Cannonball. The record distance for firing a human from a cannon is 175 feet in the case of Emmanuel Zacchini in the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, in 1940. His muzzle velocity was 145 m.p.h. On his retirement the management was fortunate in finding that his daughter-in-law, Florinda, was of the same caliber.

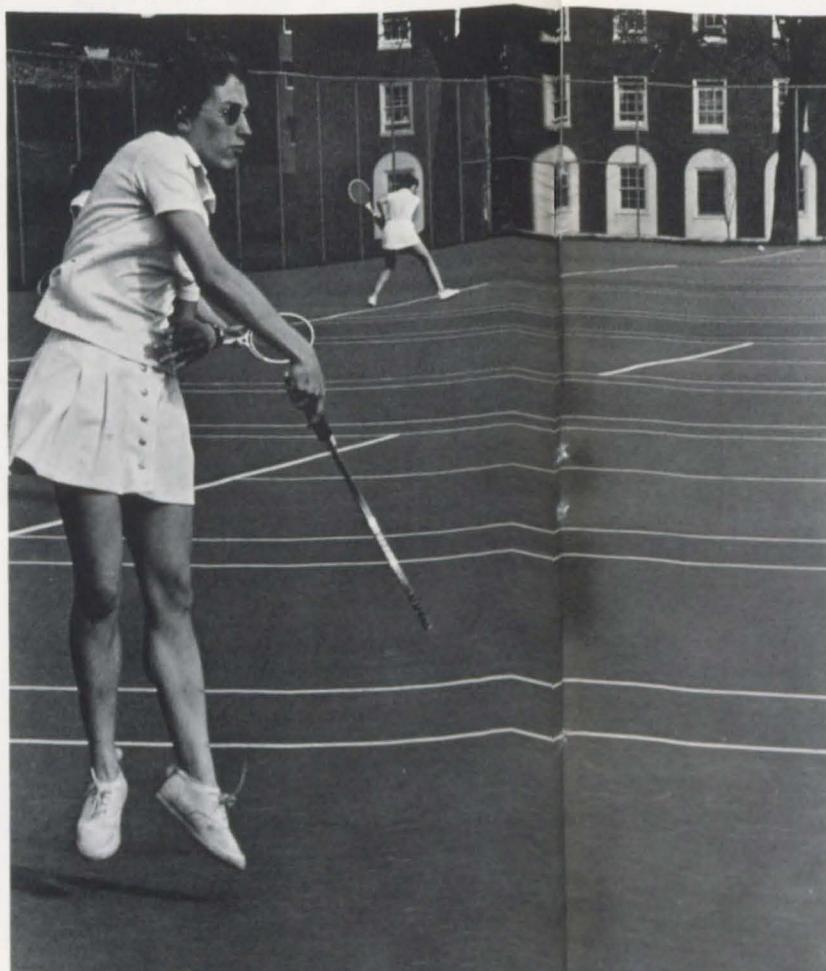

Largest Sundae. The most monstrous sundae ever concocted is one of 1,551 lbs. by Bob Bercaw of Wooster, Ohio, built on July 4, 1972. It contained 67 flavors and 144 lbs. of chocolate fudge syrup. It far surpassed the sundae built on Mike Douglas' TV program during 1972.

Longest Engagement. The longest engagement on record is one of 67 years between Octavio Guillen, 82, and Adriana Martinez, 82. They finally took the plunge in June, 1969, in Mexico City.

Food for Thought from the Dining Room Suggestion Box

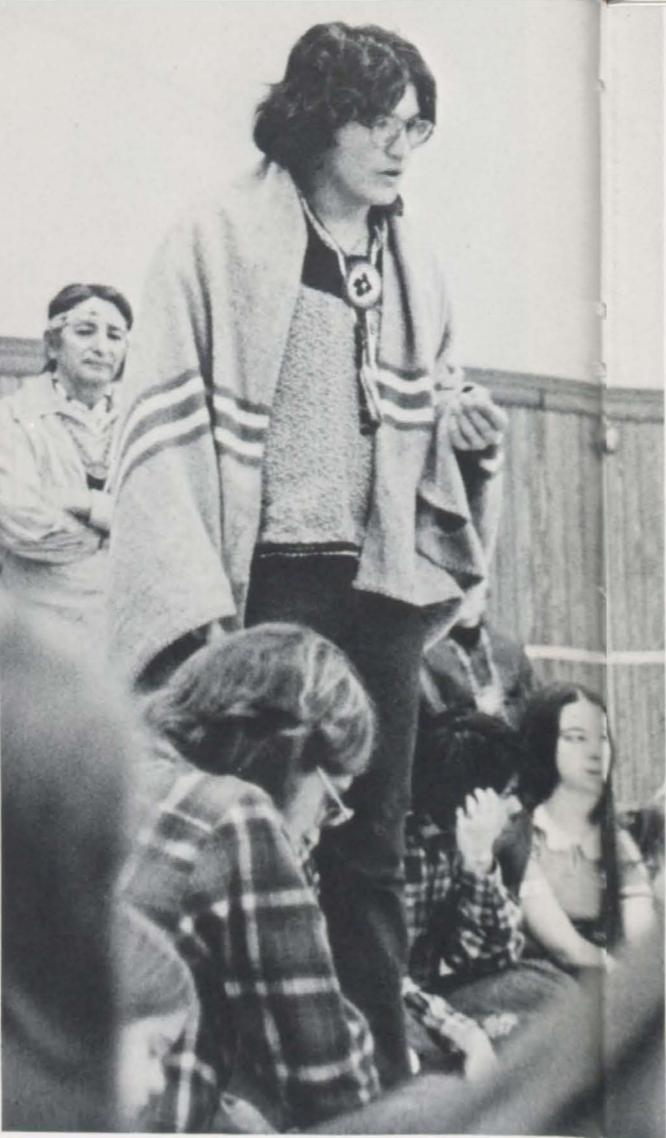

Suggestion:

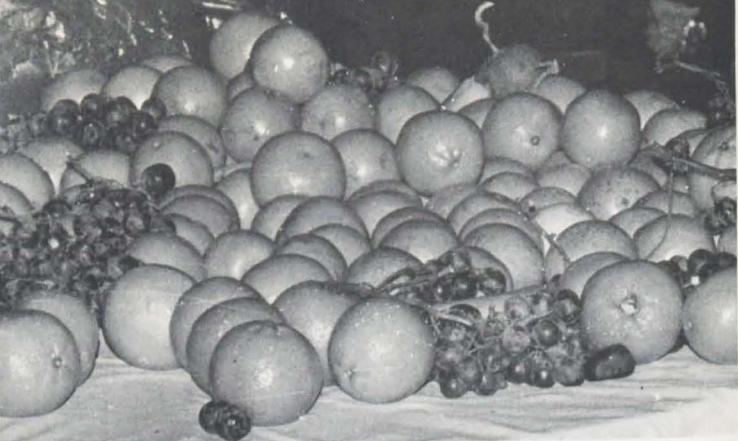

"The Dining Room needs enlivening — mystery in our meals. We suggest messages in our food. Give us potato platitudes, roll rhetoric, chittlin chatter, gooseberry gossips, salad syllogisms, cauliflower catchwords, egg eulogy, mustard monologue, salad salutations, quice quips, donut dialogues, fish flattery, omelet orations".

Solution:

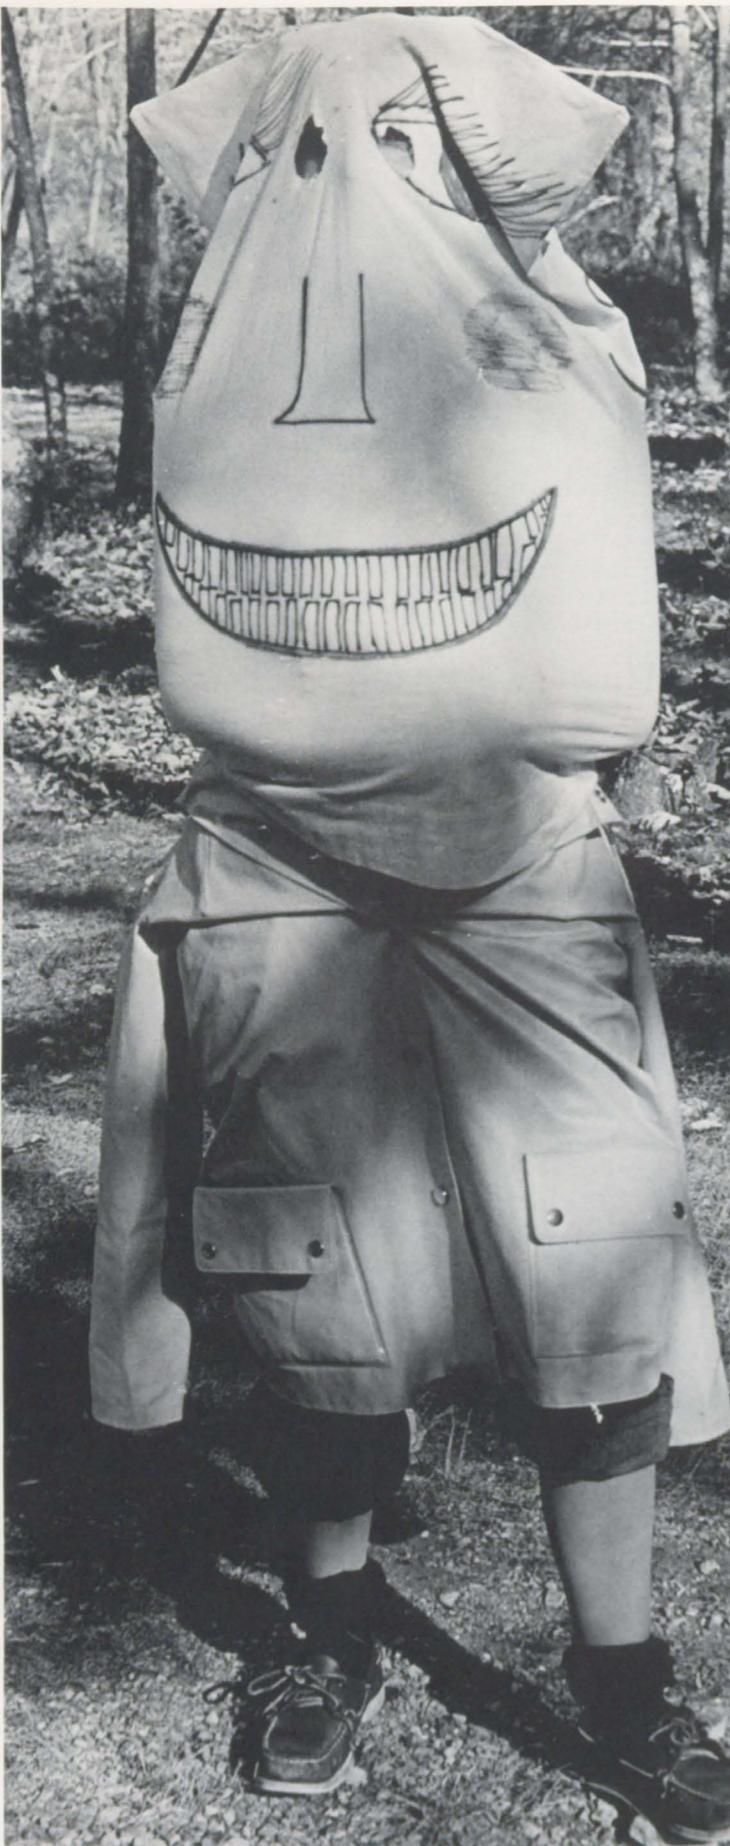

Alphabet Aspic (We aim to please).

Most Inexplicable Statute

Certain passages in several laws have always defied interpretation and the most inexplicable must be a matter of opinion. A judge of the Court of Session of Scotland has sent . . . his candidate which reads, "In the Nuts (unground), (other than ground nuts) Order, the expression nuts shall have reference to such nuts, other than ground nuts, as would but for this amending Order not qualify as nuts (unground) (other than ground nuts) by reason of their being nuts (unground)."

UPSIDE DOWN DURATION RECORD

The longest period of time for which a modern painting has hung upside down in a public gallery unnoticed is 47 days. This occurred to Le Bateau, by Henri Emile Benoit Matisse (1869-1954) of France, in the Museum of Modern Art, New York City, between October 18 and December 4, 1961. In this time 116,000 people had passed through the gallery.

Hollins' own challenger of this record is William White, Instructor of Art, who noticed that a painting in the Musée Marmottan in Paris was hanging upside down. The painting was les nymphéas, 5085, by Legs Michel Monet and had been inverted for at least one year.

i want a women's revolution like a lover.
i lust for it, i want so much this freedom,
this end to struggle and fear and lies we all exhale, that i could die just with the passionate uttering of that desire.
Just once in this my only lifetime to dance
all alone and bare on a high cliff under cypress trees,
with no fear of where I place my feet.
To even glimpse what I might have been and never never will become, had I not had to "waste my life"
fighting for what my lack of freedom keeps me from glimpsing.

Bobby (Creep) Riggs Will Fall In 3 Sets—Billie Jean Says

HOUSTON (AP) — Bobby Riggs and Billie Jean King got into an eyeball-to-eyeball, name-calling joust Wednesday on the eve of their $100,000 winner-take-all tennis battle of the sexes, which hangs like a squabble over whether Bobby is a creep.

"I don't mind you calling me a brat, champion pig or egomaniac," the 30-year-old Riggs told his 29-year-old women adversary. "But you shouldn't call me a creep. It is not a nice word."

Billie Jean didn't budge an inch.

It is not such a bad word in Beverly Hills," she replied. That was as far as she would go.

"I think she should have apologized, but she didn't," Riggs said. He said that Billie Jean used the term in a national magazine article. Riggs, in a bright, yellow suit and Billie Jean, peering under a sequined, white and yellow jacket, appeared for a minute from a distance in Sometimes I laugh, but usually I get nervous."

It was their first confrontation since reaching Houston. Asked how she felt about Riggs, who bragged this highly publicized match with his derisive comments about women in general and women's tennis in particular, Billie Jean said: "I like him and I hate him. He is so different from a traditional tradition he will crack up during the match."

The poll-giving Riggs is a jet favorite.

"Big money is scarce, it's hard to find a set on the girl," said Jimmy "The Greek" Snyder, the voice of Las Vegas, checking into the hotel headquarters in a familiar checkered coat and arm loaded with form charts.

Earlier, Billie Jean, the 29-year-old champion of women's life, had been no worse than an 83 underdog against the 30-year-old Playboy star who stunned Margaret Court in their dueling clay battles at the house in San Diego May 13.

The last of five set dual with open-yellow Playboy Billie, which has excited and divided a nation, is scheduled at 8 p.m. EDT over a synthetic green carpet.

One day you'll say to yourself, I'm tired, I'll sit down, and you'll go and sit down. Then you'll say, I'm hungry, I'll get up and get something to eat. But you won't get up. You'll say, I shouldn't have sat down, but since I have I'll sit on a little longer, then I'll get up and get something to eat. But you won't get up and you won't get anything to eat.

You'll look at the wall a while, then you'll say, I'll close my eyes, perhaps have a little sleep, after that I'll feel better, and you'll close them. And when you open them again there'll be no wall anymore.

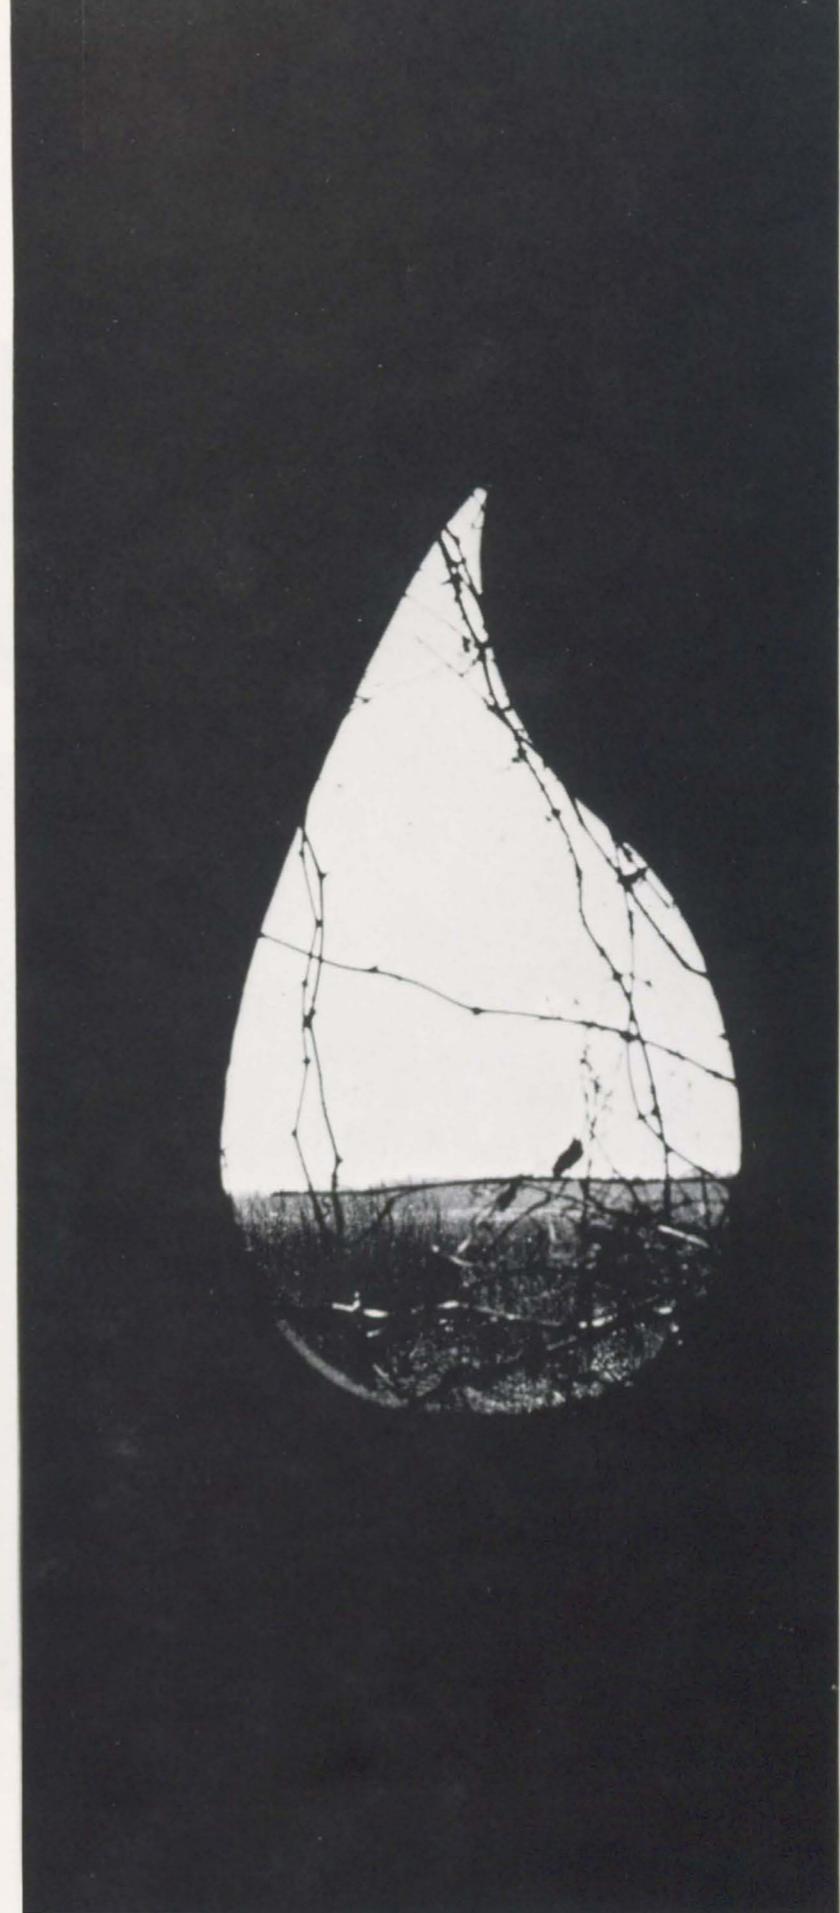

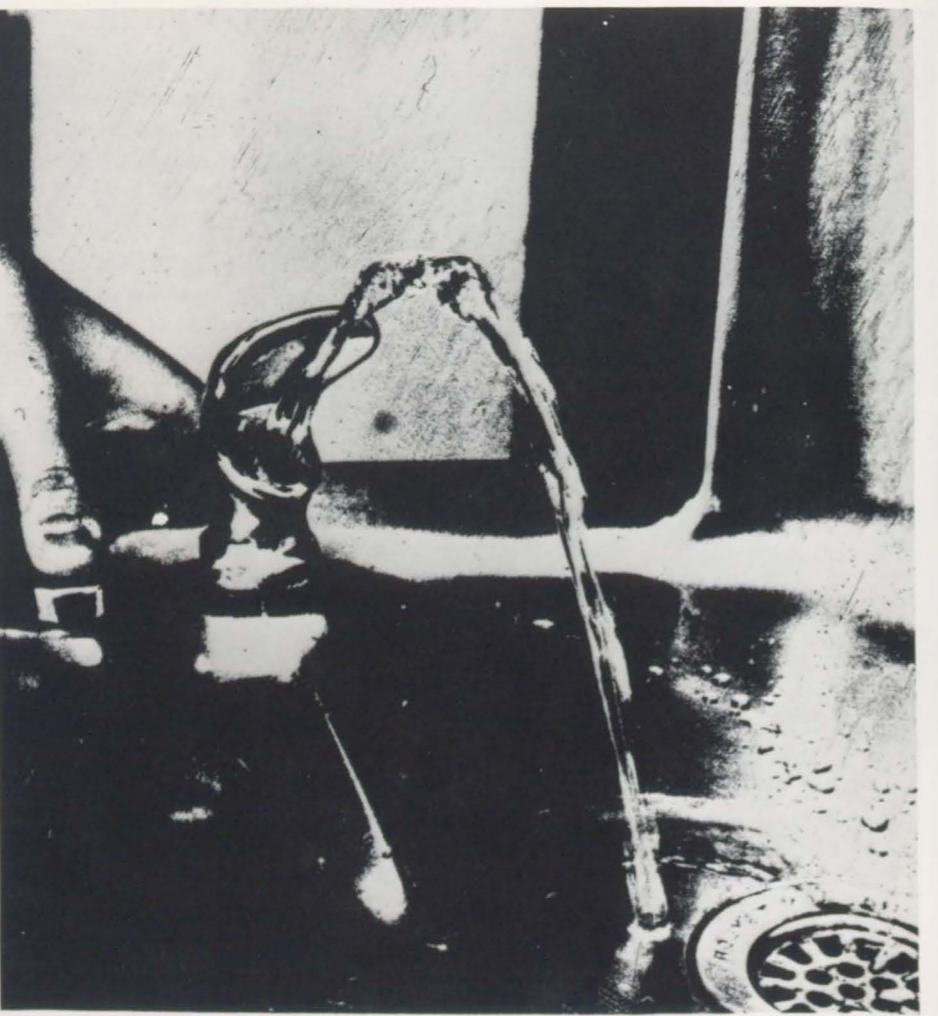

Infinite emptiness will be all around you, all the resurrected dead of all the ages wouldn't fill it, and there you'll be like a little bit of grit in the middle of the steppe . . .

I once knew a madman who thought the end of the world had come. He was a painter — and engraver. I had a great fondness for him. I used to go and see him, in the asylum. I'd take him by the hand and drag him to the window. Look! There! All that rising corn! And there! Look! The sails of the herring fleet! All that loveliness! He'd snatch away his hand and go back into his corner. Appalled. All he had seen was ashes.

He alone had been spared.

THE HOLLINS COLLEGE SNACK BAR
(Land That I Love)

The morning snack bar crowd sips coffee and reads; everyone sits alone. Mrs. Munger and Mrs. Showalter fill the Macke machines.

The lunch crowd is pretty much the same, year after year; the students change, but the hard-core faculty hamburger-eaters munch on. After the faculty leave, the serious talkers sit till they're ringing with coffee.

At three or four o'clock the after-class ice cream cone biters come in, laughing; they buy gum on the way out.

After dark everyone asks you for change for a quarter. Students in bathrobes talk about boys over hot chocolate; later, security officers lock the doors and you have to knock till a late-night talker lets you in.

Blue Grass Folk Festival

The Blue Grass Festival was suggested by Charlie Holland, engineered by Anne Gilmore '76, and produced by the Hollins community. It was a first. Some students who had never been seen outside of their rooms appeared to paint signs and do committee work alongside the staff volunteers. Hollins saw that it could be generous with its human energy, and about 2,000 people came to enjoy the results.

This effort set the precedent for an extremely successful Christmas bazaar, and for projects for future spring and fall festivals. The Blue Grass gathering proved that there could be more than one superman on campus.

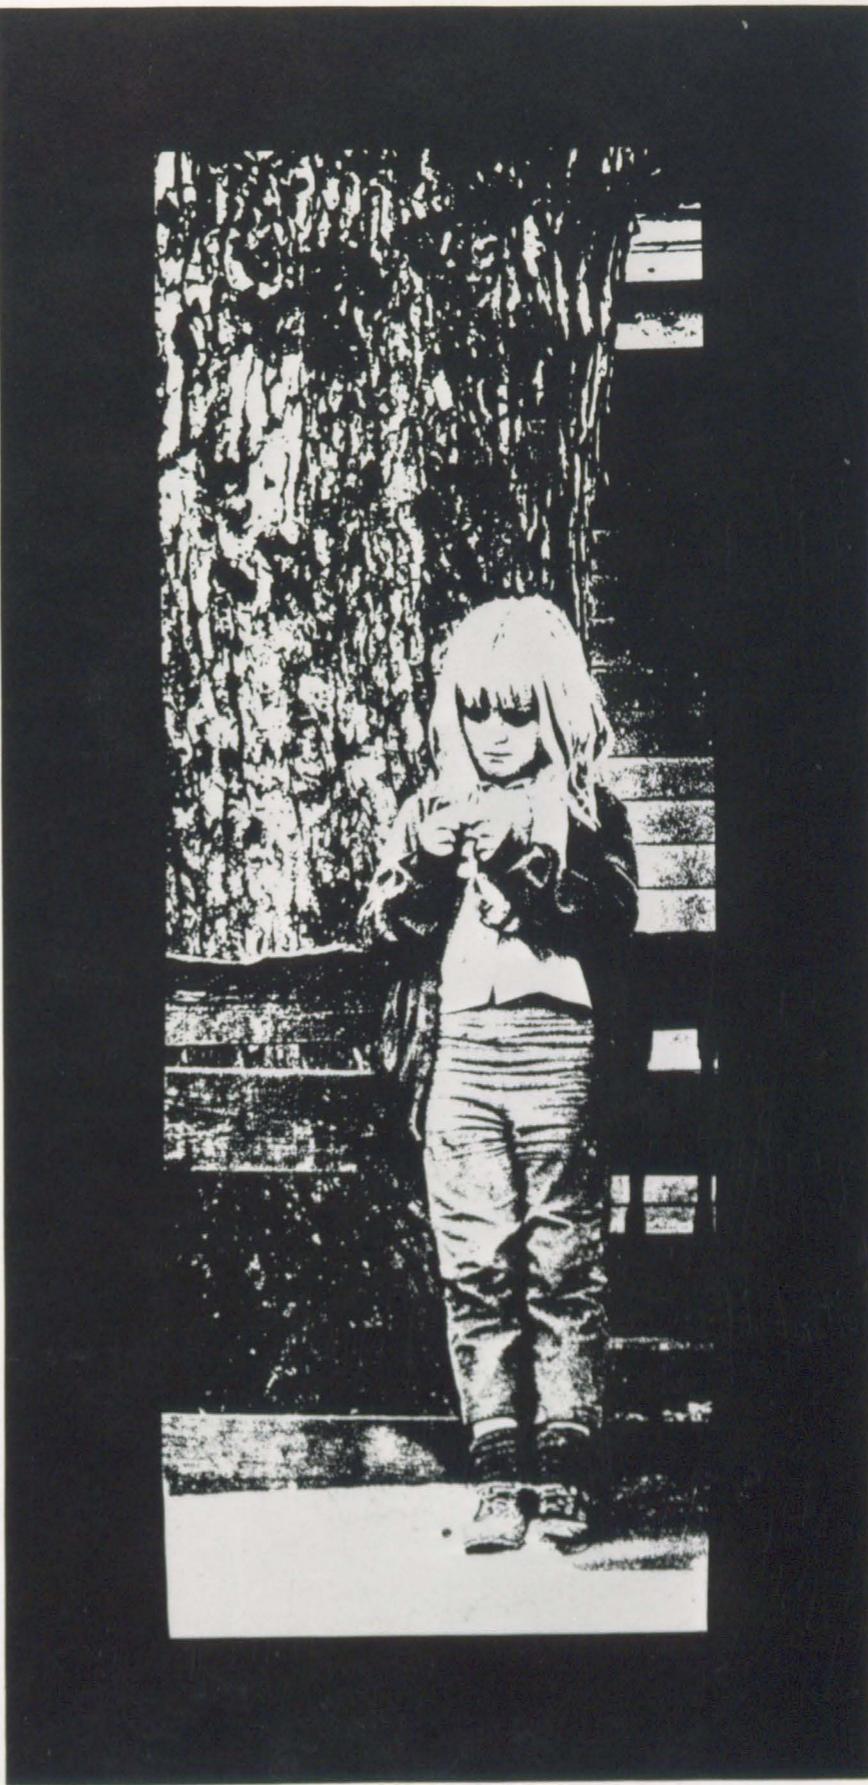

I persist in urging students to take risks in class — to speak out, to say what's on their minds, to ask the stupid question. But lately I've been asking myself how many risks I take in the classroom. There I am, class after class, prepared and secure with my statements, pronouncements, and questions. As I begin to take more risks — revealing uncertainties, admitting inadequacies, even allowing my mind to be changed — I think my students and I will all begin to take chances and start to learn more.

Henry Nash

Three cheers for Charlie Holland. If he succeeds in making the language of transactional analysis part of the language of both students and faculty, he will have brought a new era of communication and understanding to the Hollins community. Students will no longer fret over upcoming exams, or panic in the exam room. They will provide adult criticism that will be accepted by an adult faculty. And our limited mental energy will be spent on constructive enterprises; not on unproductive games. Charlie is O.K. Let's help him win.

Charles Morlang, Jr.

I've been ready for some time to wear clogs but I'm afraid the rest of the male faculty isn't yet prepared to move in this direction.

the committee on the future of the college

This year many of us have given most of our time, our energy, and our care to preparing for the future of the college. We have tried to evaluate the past so that we could see and understand the present honestly; we have tried to understand the present so that we could plan realistically and hope for the future. At times we have been exhilarated and excited by what we have discovered and planned. At times we have been deeply upset by difficult situations we have encountered that we could see no way to ameliorate. There has been great tension in some of our meetings, the tension of excitement and of anger, sometimes, but always the tension of concern and determination to do well what the community asked us to do when it created the Committee on the Future.

There has also been a quiet and consistent pleasure, the pleasure of working with people who are willing to care and who act on that care. And there has been a joy that has broken through the tension, the concentration, and the more quiet pleasures and pains of hard work, the joy of discovering that Hollins already has a future for which we need not prepare and of which we can be very proud. That future is in the people who have been and are students here, and in admiration and in friendship I would like to say that the future they are is more than any plan we can hope to make.

Thank you, all of you, for sharing with us who you are and who your are becoming.
